GLAMOUR IS REDEFINED IN THE ST. TROPEZ COLLECTION FROM LEXINGTON HOME BRANDS

LAS VEGAS, NV – From the sapphire blue waters of the Mediterranean to the landmark Hôtel Byblos and Nikki Beach, the enclave of St. Tropez on the French Riviera is synonymous with style and glamour. Making its debut with equal distinction at the Las Vegas Market on September 14, 2009 is the new St. Tropez collection from Lexington Home Brands.

“St. Tropez is an elegant interpretation of transitional design,” says Phil Haney, president and CEO. “The polished lines are emboldened with accents of gold-burnished silver leaf, exquisite decorative veneering and champagne colored hardware. While the collection has a couture appeal, the designs reflect an unpretentious feeling of luxury and comfort.”

Walnut veneers, in the warm umber Calais finish, compliment the graceful and sophisticated lines of the collection. The Corsica finish is a sienna-burnished gold that adds an eye-catching allure to accent items in hand-crafted metal. The Ritz sideboard in the dining room features an exquisite Luce travertine top in a soft ivory coloration. While dramatic in styling, pieces from the St. Tropez collection are designed with the proportion and scale to fit into any residence.

A remarkable assortment of correlated upholstered seating reflects the invigorating spirit of modern classicism, with inspiring frame designs and three fresh new color palettes. The Montaigne armless settee and chair showcase a striking interlocking ring design on the outside backs. The Alhambra chair makes a dramatic statement, with an upholstered quatrefoil design. Textiles include luxurious combinations of velvets, silks and textures, with a touch of metallic. The Calais and Corsica finishes are being offered as options on exposed wood frames in the upholstery offering, adding continuity to the lifestyle presentation.

“The resort of St. Tropez is an international destination, with a marvelous blend of cultures, fashion and style,” says Haney. “The roots are solidly traditional, but the vibe is chic and casual. The common thread, from a design point-of-view, is elegance without pretense. That is the essence of this new collection – glamour redefined.”

You need not book a trip to the Côte d’Azur to capture the spirit of St. Tropez. The collection makes its international debut at the Lexington Home Brands showroom, C-1100, in the World Market Center in Las Vegas, September 14 - 17, 2009.
