Original designs in Verbatim celebrate a Vintage Modern aesthetic, blending architectural forms with artisanal detailing.

Crafted from wire-brushed White Oak veneers in a rich brown finish with a deep umber glaze that accentuates grain lines, silhouettes in the collection include dining, occasional and media designs. Geometric inlays and striking applications of antique brass and bronze convey an artist’s touch in the hand crafting of each piece. Signature items feature exotic accent materials like White Crystal stone, Century Marble and rare Milky Quartzite, suggesting the one-of-a-kind individuality of a commissioned piece.

CONSOLES AND BOOKCASES

Verbatim’s media consoles are true statement pieces, with deep overlays on the doors framed in antique brass and centered with bold, overscaled hardware in an asymmetrical organic pattern. The standard console is designed for flat screens up to 75”, while the long console will anchor the largest high-end screens available today.

At 100” in length, the Long Media Console delivers dramatic foundational scale for today’s largest high-end monitors or as an anchor piece for any long wall. The brass plinth base lifts the console from the floor, moving the eye to the symmetry of the overlay door panels and brass accents. Two adjustable shelves behind each set of doors, cord management porting, and a reversible vented back panel are all standard, allowing space for a wide array of component storage.
